Dear Ms. Corley and Mr. Gold:

On February 3, 2005, your client was notified of additional information submitted by the complainant.

In October 2004, the Commission notified your client that it had found reason to believe and initiated an investigation in matters designated as MURs 5403 and 5466. In May 2006, the Commission notified your client that it had severed allegations and merged them into MURs 5403 and 5466.

This is to advise you that on February 7, 2007, the Federal Election Commission severed all allegations pertaining to America Coming Together from MUR 5612 and merged those allegations into its ongoing investigations in MURs 5403 and 5466. On this same date, the Commission closed the file in MUR 5612.

Please direct all future correspondence regarding the allegations previously part of MUR 5612 under the designation MURs 5403 and 5466.
